The Crossword Century-Alan Connor 2014-07-10 A journalist and word aficionado salutes the 100-year history and pleasures of crossword puzzles Since its debut in The New York World on December 21, 1913, the crossword puzzle has enjoyed a rich and surprisingly lively existence. Alan Connor, a comic writer known for his exploration of all things crossword in The Guardian, covers every twist and turn: from the 1920s, when crosswords were considered a menace to productive society; to World War II, when they were used to recruit code breakers; to their starring role in a 2008 episode of The Simpsons. He also profiles the colorful characters who make up the interesting and bizarre subculture of crossword constructors and competitive solvers, including Will Shortz, the iconic New York Times puzzle editor who created a crafty crossword that appeared to predict the outcome of a presidential election, and the legions of competitive puzzle solvers who descend on a Connecticut hotel each year in an attempt to be crowned the American puzzle-solving champion. At a time when the printed word is in decline, Connor marvels at the crossword's seamless transition onto Kindles and iPads, keeping the puzzle one of America's favorite pastimes. He also explores the way the human brain processes crosswords versus computers that are largely stumped by clues that require wordplay or a simple grasp of humor. A fascinating examination of our most beloved linguistic amusement—and filled with tantalizing crosswords and clues embedded in the text—The Crossword Century is sure to attract the attention of the readers who made Word Freak and Just My Type bestsellers.

Primary Games Book 1-Carol Kidd 2013-10-24 Unlike many other puzzle books, this series offers your early learner total independence to play them without any assistance from you. It is a self-checking puzzle book that gives a child complete freedom to enjoy words he is learning and to check his answers all by himself easily. In Book 1 of Primary Games, your child will find a book in LARGE PRINT that uses lower-cased lettering. Unlike most other game books, this one uses the SAME LIST of spelling words in each set of puzzle games. This means, that after he has played all the puzzles, he will have a sense of mastery for the words he has been using. Here is what you will find in this resource: 1. Using visually attractive picture images beside each spelling word, your child or student will have an illustration of the word he is learning to spell 2. These SAME spelling words are then used in the WORD SEARCH PUZZLE. Each puzzle only incorporates horizontal and vertical letter placement. Backward and diagonal lettering are not used to prevent confusion 3. The ANSWERS to each word search puzzle can be found on the BACK of the puzzle page, making it easy for your child to receive immediate feedback and any necessary help with his efforts 4. Next, the CROSSWORD PUZZLE incorporates the SAME spelling words your child has been playing with; however, instead of clues, the words are listed, making it fun for him to find the numbers and fill in the blanks 5. In the final puzzle game of the set, your child will get to test himself with a Fill-in-the-Blanks game that uses the SAME words he has been learning in the other puzzle games 6. And because of the large print, your child will have plenty of room to practice writing his letters, eliminating the frustration of spaces that are too small Through the use of REPETITION and learning to see the SHAPES of words by using lower-case lettering, your child will experience success and confidence--all without any supervision or help from YOU! And be sure to check out Book 2 of Primary Games for continued fun--for you AND your child!

Word-Natan Last 2012-01-01 Created by Natan Last, a senior at Brown University, three-time intern with Will Shortz, and in 2008 the youngest person to have a puzzle published in the Sunday New York Times, Word kicks the crossword puzzle squarely into the 21st century for a new generation of puzzle-lovers, replacing fusty crossword-ese with hip cultural references, modern wordplay, and a lively mix of high-and low-brow pop trivia. A Word puzzle begins with the shared knowledge of a literate but not-so-reverent generation, and celebrates the knowingness with a deft touch. Your parents' crosswords make solvers feel smart. Word puzzles make solvers feel smart and cool, getting the references to The Daily Show, Mario Brothers, the Goo Goo Dolls, and a hefty dose of nostalgia (the name of the motel in Psycho). But they also know the core curriculum: Charlotte Bronte's Jane, Roman generals, Berlioz and von Bismarck, Homer—and not just Homer Simpson. The puzzles are constructed with all the smarts of a daily Times crossword: themes, interconnected clues, titles that unlock the overall puzzle (solve all the clues and the circle letters will spell out a famous name at Hogwarts). Assisting Mr. Last is a group of five more top “under 25” constructors, all of whom have published puzzles in The New York Times.
